

- "We Will Rise" -

by Anthony Pfluke

Look to the light and I'll be there
Open your eyes and don't be scared
How amazing up here in heaven
But the heavens cry
For stolen lives

May Ke Akua guide us
May we continue to be messengers of the light
May we fight for peace and unity
Of all religion, color, and belief
May we rise up to the challenge
May we rise up to the light
May we never fall, and never give up the fight

Look to the light and I'll be there
Close your eyes and don't be scared
How amazing up here in heaven
But the heavens cry, for stolen lives

Make the most of every breath
Make the best of every moment of your life
Make the best for all our children
Live a life of intention to rise
May we rise as one, and not be shunned
By the waves of the world
We are the world
And we are the ways

Look to the light and I'll be there
Close your eyes and don't be scared
How amazing up here in heaven
But the heavens cry, for stolen lives

Look to the light and I'll be there
Open your eyes and don't be scared
How amazing up here in heaven
So dry your eyes
We will rise
